Financial Information

For your I-20, we must see proof that you have enough assets for tuition and living expenses for one full year. You can find that information in your Estimate of Expenses, which was included in your email welcome packet. If you can't locate it, please email iss@lesley.edu for another copy.

For your proof of finances, you must submit the following:

- A letter from your bank showing the current account balance
 - » The letter must be in English
 - » The letter must be less than 6 months old
 - » If possible, it should show the account balance in both the local currency and USD
- If the bank account is not in your name, you must have your sponsor write you a brief typed-and-signed letter indicating that they are sponsoring your for your tuition and living expenses. See below for an example.
- If you are being sponsored by your government or another organization, you must submit a letter, on letterhead, indicating the total amount of your sponsorship and the dates of your sponsorship
- You may have multiple bank accounts and multiple sponsors — altogether, you must have at least the amount indicated on your Estimate of Expenses.

Sample Sponsorship Letter

If you are showing any bank accounts which are not in your name, you must have your sponsor(s) write you a brief typed-and-signed letter. The letter should include your name, your sponsor's name, and your relationship to the sponsor. It should be typed, signed, and dated. Here is an example letter:

05/25/2016

To International Student Services:

I, Jane Smith, will support my daughter, Jill Smith for her tuition and living expenses while she studies at Lesley University. Please find attached my bank documents showing my ability to pay.
