

College of Liberal Arts and Sciences: Bachelor of Arts in Education

Lesley University's Bachelor of Arts (BA) in Education programs specified in the table below are approved by the Massachusetts Department of Elementary and Secondary Education (DESE) and meet current educational requirements for Initial Educator Licensure in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, as designated. Lesley University is accredited by the New England Commission for Higher Education (NECHE) and its education programs are accredited by the Teacher Education Accreditation Council (TEAC), now the Council for Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP). All Lesley University programs leading to Initial Licensure are Massachusetts-based and require an in-state practicum. If you have any questions after reviewing the information below, please contact us at cert_off@lesley.edu.

State-by-State Licensure Information:

- A. Lesley's B.A. in Education Programs specified in the table below meet the current educational requirements for Initial Licensure in the following state: Massachusetts.

Approved for Initial License by Massachusetts Department of Elementary and Secondary Education

Education Major	MA Teacher Licensure
B.A. Early Childhood	Early Childhood (PreK-2)
B.A. Elementary Education (1-6)	Elementary Education (1-6)
B.A. Middle School Education	One of the following: English (5–12); General Science (5–8); History (5–12); Mathematics (5–8); Mathematics/Science (5–8)
B.A. Secondary Education	One of the following: English (5–12); History (5–12); Mathematics (8-12)
B.A. Special Education	Teacher of Students with Moderate Disabilities (PreK-8)

- B. Lesley's B.A. in Education Programs specified in the table above may be eligible to apply for licensure in the following states and territories under the National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification (NASDTEC) Interstate Agreement. Massachusetts is a member state of the NASDTEC and a signatory of the NASDTEC Interstate Agreement, which facilitates the transfer of educator licensure between member states (not necessarily immediate reciprocity). Therefore, a Massachusetts educator license may be transferable. Depending on your professional goals, where you to teach, and the licensure structures that exist within that state, there are diverse pathways to licensure that may be relevant and some may require additional coursework, tests, assessments, and/or classroom experiences.

Per the NASDTEC website: "The NASDTEC Interstate Agreement facilitates the mobility of educators among the states and other jurisdictions that are members of NASDTEC and have signed the Agreement. Although there may be conditions applicable to individual jurisdictions, the Agreement makes it possible for an educator who completed an approved program and/or who holds a certificate or license in one jurisdiction to earn a certificate or license in another state or jurisdiction." For more information, including state specific requirements, please see:

<https://www.nasdtrec.net/page/Interstate>

Current NASDTEC member states, territories, and jurisdictions include:

College of Liberal Arts and Sciences: Bachelor of Arts in Education

Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, District of Columbia, Department of Defense Education Activity (DoDEA), Florida, Georgia, Guam, Hawaii, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Wyoming.

New Mexico, New York, and South Dakota are not current NASDTEC signatories. Applicants and current students interested in licensure in the above states are directed to the following state specific guidance for pathways to licensure.

New Mexico: <https://webnew.ped.state.nm.us/bureaus/licensure/>

New York: <http://www.highered.nysed.gov/tcert/certificate/teachrecother.html>

South Dakota: <https://doe.sd.gov/certification/>

Individuals who intend to pursue educator licensure in one of the states listed in Category B are strongly encouraged to request guidance from state departments of education or licensing boards to determine any additional requirements for attaining equivalent licensure in that state. For more information, including state specific requirements, please see: <https://www.nasdtec.net/page/Interstate>

Periodic Review of Licensure Regulations and Moving to a New State

It is important for all applicants and students to understand the specific requirements of the state in which you intend to apply for licensure and to periodically review the requirements in order to be aware of any future changes to those requirements. If you move to a new state, you should be aware that the requirements for licensure may differ from the state in which you previously resided, and you are advised to become familiar with and understand the requirements of the new state. Students are expected to keep the University informed of any changes of location via the Address Change Form available on the Registrar's Office webpage.

Lesley University has attempted to ensure the accuracy and reliability of the information provided at the time this notice was created. Please be aware that state licensure is a matter of individual state legislation and is outside of the control of educational institutions and, therefore, the information presented in this notice is subject to change.