Clinical Mental Health Counseling: Trauma Studies Specialization, 60 Credit Master of Arts

Required Courses (36 Credits):

GCOUN 6007 Psychopathology – 3 credits
        OR
GCOUN 6102 Child & Adolescent Psychopathology – 3 credits
GCOUN 6015 Group Dynamics for Counselors & Consultants – 3 credits
GCOUN 6026 Developmental Psychology – 3 credits
GCOUN 6027 Clinical Skills & the Counseling Process – 3 credits
GCOUN 6029 Vocational Development & Career Counseling – 3 credits
GCOUN 6030 Psychology of Culture & Identity: Power, Privilege, & Oppression – 3 credits
GCOUN 6101 Quantitative & Qualitative Research Methods – 3 credits
GCOUN 6200 Orientation to Professional Counseling & Psychology – 2 credits
GCOUN 6201 Issues & Standards in Professional Counseling – 3 credits
GCOUN 6202 Theories of Counseling & Psychotherapy – 3 credits
        OR
GCOUN 6300 Theories of Holistic Counseling & Psychotherapy I – 3 credits
        AND
GCOUN 6301 Theories of Holistic Counseling & Psychotherapy II – 3 credits
GCOUN 6205 Assessments for Counseling & Psychology: Adults – 3 credits
        OR
GCOUN 6255 Assessments for Counseling & Psychology: Children & Adolescents – 3 credits
GCOUN 6211 Professional Integrative Seminar – 1 credit
GCOUN 7100 Biological Bases of Behavior – 3 credits

Required Specialization Courses (9 Credits):

GCOUN 6035 Psychological Trauma and Post-Trauma Therapy – 3 credits
GCOUN 7200 Disaster Mental Health and Community Crisis Intervention – 3 credits
GCOUN 7201 Trauma in the Lives of Children and Adolescents and Play Therapy – 3 credits

Field Experience Courses (6 Credits):

GCOUN 7710 Clinical Practice & Supervision I: Clinical Setting – 3 credits
GCOUN 7711 Clinical Practice & Supervision II: Clinical Setting – 3 credits

Electives (3-9 Credits):

For students who choose to complete one internship, they will have 9 remaining elective credits. For students who choose to complete two internships, they will take the second set of supervision courses and have 3 remaining elective credits.