About Lesley University

Lesley University, located just outside of Boston near Harvard Square in the vibrant city of Cambridge, Massachusetts, graduates more mental health professionals and specialized education teachers than any other college or university in New England.

Lesley is renowned for its unique portfolio of programs focused on Education, Mental Health & Well-Being, and Art and Design. The university also offers Liberal Arts & Business programs that support these key disciplines and a special program, the Threshold Programs, for neurodiverse students seeking a college experience to learn independent living and working skills.

About two-thirds of Lesley's more than 5,000 students are graduate students; one-third are undergraduate and Threshold students. They are caring and creative problem solvers who contribute to their communities thanks to Lesley's practice-based education, growing and novel partnerships and a 90,000 strong alumni network.

The Boston Printmakers Award is given by the Boston Printmakers Association.

Edith Lesley Wolfard Award

Emmanuela Feliciano

The Edith Lesley Wolfard Award is named for the founder of Lesley University and the recipient is chosen by a vote of undergraduate faculty and administrators across Liberal Arts & Business, Education, and Mental Health & Well-Being. This award is given to a graduating senior who has achieved academic excellence and has consistently demonstrated qualities of leadership within and beyond the Lesley community. The award recipient has exhibited a commitment to lifelong learning and professional excellence and the promise of a future best exemplifying the Lesley ideal.

Luke Baldwin Award

Michelle Michitson

The Luke Baldwin Award was established in memory of Dr. Luke Baldwin, who served as an associate professor, associate dean for academic affairs, and provost during his 15 years at Lesley. Dr. Baldwin came to Lesley as a faculty member in the Adult Baccalaureate program and was an advocate for adult learners throughout his career. Lesley University is proud to offer the Luke Baldwin Award each year to an adult student who has taken the risk to return to college to live Dr. Baldwin's ideal of lifelong learning and continued service to the community.

2024 Honorary Degree Recipient Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters

Sy Montgomery

Sy Montgomery is a conservationist, an adventurer, and the author of 38 books for adults and children. Those books have earned many honors: The Soul of an Octopus was a 2015 Finalist for the National Book Awards, and Sy is the winner of the 2009 New England Independent Booksellers Association Nonfiction Award, the 2010 Children's Book Guild Nonfiction Award, the Henry Bergh Award for Nonfiction, as well as many, many awards and honors.

It's her experiences with animals that truly show who Sy Montgomery is as a person; she gets up close and reveals herself so another creature can reveal themselves. Most of the time, it works. She's been chased by an offended silverback gorilla in Zaire; bitten by a vampire bat in Costa Rica; enjoyed the company of 18,000 snakes while in a pit in Manitoba; hung out with a wild tarantula in French Guiana, undressed by an orangutan on Borneo, been hunted by a tiger in India, and learned to SCUBA so to communicate with octopuses. Her most recent book, Secrets of the Octopus, is the companion volume to National Geographic's 3-part TV series of the same name, and an excerpt from the book is the cover story for the May 2024 issue of National Geographic.

Called "Equal parts poet and scientist" by the New York Times, Montgomery says, "We are on the cusp of either destroying this sweet, green Earth—or revolutionizing the way we understand the rest of animate creation," she says. "It's an important time to be writing about the connections we share with our fellow creatures. It's a great time to be alive."

Sy Montgomery is a 1979 graduate of Syracuse University, a triple major with dual degrees in Magazine Journalism from the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications and in French Language and Literature and in Psychology from the College of Arts and Sciences. She was awarded an Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters from Keene State College in 2004, and an Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters from Franklin Pierce University and also from Southern New Hampshire University in 2011.

Unofficial List of Graduates: The names that appear in this printed program were complete and accurate as of April 30, 2024. The program does not reflect any changes to the list after that date.

Award of Honors: Because of publication deadlines, the honors listed in this program are based on students' cumulative grade point averages of all completed coursework as of April 30, 2024, and may not include the names of those who earn honors once final grades are posted to students' official academic records. Final determination of Latin Honors are certified by the Registrar's Office as accurate and official, based on the students' final cumulative grade point average and may differ from what is listed in this program.

Academic Regalia

The academic attire worn at Commencement has its origins in the Middle Ages. The purpose of academic regalia is to display the academic and scholarly achievements of the wearer. From the cap, gown, and academic hood it is possible to distinguish the institution from which the wearer graduated, the field of learning in which his or her degree was earned, and the level of degree.

Academic hoods are the visual representation of scholastic degrees. Academic hoods are lined with the official color of the college or university conferring the degree, and the velvet detail represents the learning discipline. All Lesley University academic hoods are green and gold and the following colors represent each discipline:

Arts: White

Business Administration: Drab

Education: Light Blue

Fine Arts: Brown

Science: Golden Yellow

Social Work: Citron

The honorary academic hoods are white for Doctor of Humane Letters and brown for Doctor of Fine Arts.

The mortarboard hats and soft velvet tams are black. Prior to receiving the degree, the tassel is worn on the right. The graduates ceremonially turn the tassel to the left at the end of the Commencement ceremony.

Gowns are normally black, and the level of the degree is indicated by the cut of the gown. Colored doctoral gowns represent the school colors of the college or university that awarded the doctoral degree. The green gowns of the president, trustees, and honorary degree recipients represent the Lesley University colors. The president wears the Lesley University presidential medallion.

Cords worn by graduates receiving baccalaureate degrees indicate honors. Summa Cum Laude cords are gold, Magna Cum Laude cords are gold and white, and Cum Laude cords are white.

This is your moment.

As you graduate today, we encourage you to take time to reflect on your accomplishments and look forward to the next chapter in your life as you prepare to enjoy the next adventure. You made things happen, and now you are taking your Lesley education into the world to enhance lives through a powerful combination of knowledge, skill, innovative thinking, empathy, and passion.

We welcome you into a community of people who have walked where you walk, and who now bring fresh ideas and new possibilities into their work and the lives of others. You are a part of this group of teachers, artists, healers, leaders, and visionaries, over 90,000 alumni who found their calling at Lesley University. You have been shaped by Lesley; now you can shape the future as a Lesley alum!

Whether you join us on the Alumni Council, serve on an Alumni Committee, become a mentor to prospective students, seek guidance from the Career Resource Center, provide career connections and guidance to future alumni, or attend university leadership lectures, exhibits, and events, we encourage you to keep in touch with your Lesley family and support the development and success of future Lesley students.

Congratulations! We look forward to staying in touch, and hearing about the places your Lesley education takes you.
